

Pedro Angeles Angeles

January 28, 1944 - August 3, 2020

Pedro Angeles Angeles was a young father when he immigrated to this country in search of a challenge. His dream was for his child to learn the English language and return home. One year turned into two and two into a lifetime of hard work and dedication that allowed him to defeat all odds. He reached the so-called "American Dream" on his own but sadly, on August 3rd, 2020 he became a victim of the pandemic, a virus and a government that doesn't care. He was a victim to a system that only sees people as numbers. He became a statistic. This hard working immigrant paid with his life for his audacity to dream. He leaves so many with broken hearts but not without leaving a huge trace of his existence. He touched many lives and made a difference on his own and strangers alike. He was good and he did good. He will be greatly missed but won't be forgotten. May you rest in peace our beautiful and amazing Papí. 1944 to eternity.
