“ I grew up with Aaron, met him at Holub middle school, in SW Houston, Alief. We were very close as we would spend everyday mostly all day just hanging out at his house or at our other friends house.

Aaron had a very unique personality. I say that with a smile. He was always the funniest one in our crew, the wildest and most outgoing. Making us laugh with his cool dance moves and fascinating us with his cooking. He loved to cook. I can always remember him with his huge afro walking up and down S. Dairy Ashford and Cook Rd. : Those were the days. The memories will forever stay in my heart. He was a great father, working for his son. His smile. He was a good friend. And i can honestly say i will never meet or have a friend like Aaron. We miss you, but i know you are in a better place, watching over us and your family. I just pray for Justice for your Murder. My condolences to the Wilson family and anyone who knew Aro. I love you bro. -LOU 6-3-2015
