“ Dear Eric and Jennifer,
I am so sorry for your loss. I have no doubt that heaven gained an angel as soon as Abby arrived. I am sending my thoughts and prayers to you and your children.
Warmly,
Tina

“ We cannot imagine the sorrow you are going through. It has been such a joy to watch your family grow and thrive and we are heartbroken by Abby's passing. She was so loved by all of you and there is no doubt her tiny heart was filled with love for you. "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" Matthew 5:4

“The world may never notice if a rosebud doesn't bloom or even pause to wonder if the petals fall too soon, but every life that ever forms or ever comes to be, touches the world in some small way for all eternity. The little one you longed for was swiftly here and gone, but the love that was then planted...is a light that still shines on. And though your arms are empty, your hearts know what to do, every beating of your heart says we remember you.”

“Gunny and Jennifer, this is the third time I've tried to type something in Abby's book. The right words, or enough words, don't exist to properly express the heart-break I feel for you two, and all the girls. God sure knew what Abby needed...a life filled with LOVE, and you gave her all of that without reservation. I am in awe of the parents you are, and the Christ-led life you lead. I'm so deeply sorry that Abby is gone and wish I could bear even a small amount of the pain for you. Know that we are holding all of you in prayer, and that the Lord surrounds you with more love than you can imagine. With love,
Stover
