She canned the vegetables and would share the canned goods with family. She also did her fair share of baking--- cakes, kolaches and best of all were her oatmeal cookies. Her favorite pastime was attending local bingo games with friends. She moved to Cambridge in September, 2005. Adela passed away July 22, 2012 in

Rosenberg.

“ I really don't know where to start but I am sooooo sorry for ya'lls loss. I can't say anything to make you all feel better because loosing your last parent is so hard to except. I can say you all have been the best friends or neighbors to our family we couldn't have anyone better to grow up next to. Your parents were always so kind and loving. It hurts my heart to know that you all have to endure this pain at this time, but as we all know we were not put here to last forever. I know she has been reunited with your dad and other family members as well as Mom and Dad. My prayers are with you all and please except my deepest sympathy from my family.
