“ Although I didn't personally meet this beautiful departed woman, I felt I knew her by extension each time I heard the expressions of love and admiration from her beloved son Glen Kubeczka. On several occasions, I would join him when he bought the 14K rose for his first lady each year. The fond memories he shared of this beautiful lady, will always be etched in my memories. My belated condolences to the family. May The Most High keep you comforted today and the days to come.
