“ I remember the first time he came into my moms office to get his taxes done and I fell in love with him and thought how good he smelled chase of his cologne. From that day on we were great friends. Then when I started to sell Avon and deliver to Abi he and I would just visit and play with Abi and Gracie. Then never thought I would help to take care of him as his caregiver. My boyfriend Bryan and I went every Tuesday and Thursday to get him dressed and into his chair and while we did we made him laugh and smile and he would joke with us and be happy as we were there. He will be dearly missed and loved him until we meet again. Thanks to Abi for letting Bryan and I to be his caregivers and be able to help out.
