“ Mrs. Bridwell was always so kind and welcoming...I know I stayed at your house too much...but I loved it there. We played records and danced and laughed... gave me my first taste of champagne at age 13. The summer I spent with y'all in NJ was the best!! I'm so glad we had a visit awhile back after so many years. Hugs, JAN.

“ Alice was an amazing and dynamic woman. I'm so glad I got to know her when she hosted my brother, sister and I when my father (Percy Edwards) was hospitalized due to a heart attack a few years back. She was an wonderful hostess and true friend to us. She will be remembered and missed for he kindness, intelligence and grace.
