After marrying Fritz Kalkomey of Rosenberg, they made their permanent home in Needville. She is survived by a daughter, Virginia Kalkomey Linn of San Antonio, son, Richard Kalkomey of Needville and his wife Connie, grandchildren, Rebecca Linn Schaub and husband Mark, Cody Kalkomey and wife Shannon, Dusty Kalkomey and wife Melissa, Lauren Kalkomey Cook and husband Randy. “ Sorry to say I am just learning of your Mother's passing. I have known her since I was just a toddler. My Mother & Daddy (Joe & Alma Perkins) were good friends with she & your Dad when they were just young couples. I always admired your Mother for her care of her family and herself, she was always impeccably well groomed. My parents have been gone for a good long while now, so I am not even sure you will remember them, but I just wanted to share these few thoughts with you. I am sure she is happily dancing with your Dad once again, in heaven.

“ We are saddened by the loss of your Mother and grandmother. I remember her love of dancing at her granddaughter Becky's wedding. I don't know if she ever got off the dance floor.

“ Alice was a lady ahead of her time in many ways, not the least of which was her ability to treat everyone with respect and greet them with a 'yakshemash'. She took care of my sister and me after school for several years when we were very young and she was always there for us. She was a second grandma to me and helped me through a very difficult time in my youth. To help alleviate my extreme case of separation anxiety, Alice volunteered to co-teach my Catechism class. Her selfless act helped me overcome my fears and has made a huge positive impact on my life. I will always cherish her memory. Did I mention she was a great cook? We'll miss you Aunt Alice! I never knew your middle name was Ludmilla!

“ I was so sorry to hear about your mom's passing. She lived a full life and left quite a mark on the Needville community. Our faith tells us we will see her again and I pray you are comforted in knowing that. Her journey is over here on earth and it just began in heaven. I know you'll miss her, but God's promises are faithful and true. You will see her again!
