

Alice Mae (Riggins) Morgan

September 22, 1918 - January 24, 2017

Alice Mae Riggins Morgan was born on September 22, 1918, in Thompsons, Texas to Henry and Mackola McCall Riggins. She attended public school in Thompsons, Texas and graduated from Powell Point High School in Kendleton, Texas.

Alice accepted Christ at Mount Pilgrim Baptist Church in Thompsons, Texas where she remained until her health began to fail. She served faithfully in the Choir, Mission and as a Youth Matron.

On January 27, 1946 she married Fletcher Morgan, Jr. Their union was blessed with two daughters, Nadine LaShalle and Rita Lynette; one son Dennis LaRue and first granddaughter, namesake and best friend Alicia Michelle.

As a homemaker, a wife, and a mother, Alice was strong, capable and tireless, always striving to make everything better. More than anything, Alice cherished her roles as a mother and later as a doting grandmother. She took these roles to a new and unsurpassed level. Her passions in life were her loving family, working in her vegetable and flower gardens and cooking.

She will be remembered fondly as a wonderful homemaker and a great cook.

Alice was also a 4-H Club leader, a member of the Home Demonstration Club and former treasurer of the Edwards Cemetery Association.

She is preceded in death by her husband of sixty-three years, mother, father, brother Goldie Riggins, nephew Charles Riggins, Sr. and great grandson Cameron Taylor.

Alice's earthly journey came to an end on Monday, January 24, 2017.
