I would like to say that my mom was a loving, caring, funny and awesome person to be around. She took people in her life / home and didn't ask them for anything that is just how she was. She taught me alot and one thing I still live by to this day. If you want something then you need to go out and earn it because nobody is going to do it for you. I'm not sure when these tears are going to stopmaybe I'm just waiting for my mom to whipe them off with her thumb and tell me" everything is going to be OK baby" well until I see you again momma I just want to say thank you for life , love and happiness and I'm blessed that you were my mom.. 🙏🥰💜💜💜

“ It’s never easy trying to put pen to paper when some one passes. But I’ll still never forget the day I was walking by your house to go home and threw up a glass coke bottle and broke it on your sidewalk and you screamed HEY! You’re gonna get your butt back here and clean this up and handed me a broom and dust pan and I sure did sweep that sidewalk thinking this female is ruthless & scary! Lol! So I left that sidewalk cleaner then it was before I broke that glass. A few months later my family moved next door to you and again I thought to myself, awe man were moving next to this crazy lady)ha) and was kinda scared. Lo and behold we started hanging out and bbq’ing as neighbors and then her and my dad met and life began again for him. I know I wasn’t around much to see y’all share those good memories cause come on, I was a stubborn kid trying to figure out life and fun was more important then hanging with family/parents and boy do I regret it ALOT. The memories I do have I will cherish and be forever grateful. Thanks for loving my dad wholeheartedly and putting up with his stubbornness ;) rest peacefully and until I see ya again keep shining bright like the diamond you are.

“ Alisha, I will always remember being the “daughter she never had, AKA her Mexican daughter”. We made many, many memories that I will always cherish. Absolutely GOODTIMES! And the reason I loved her most was for bringing Josh into this world. Somebody that I am still blessed to be able to call my friend. Until we meet again I will always be there for him! Shine bright. 🙏🥹

“ So many things to say but one thing I can say is I was always loved by my second family, who I refer to as “The Tribe” Alisha was a big part of my life growing up and always had an opinion, no matter if you wanted to hear it or not she was going to let you hear it! She was always welcoming and enjoyed having her together at her house. I pray that she has found the peace that only the father can provide, RIP Alisha, you will be missed.

“ Alisha loved her family and she loved her pets. Her heart was big and if you needed help, she would be there for you. She took me in as a teenager and cared for me like her own son. Many of my best years, and best times were spent under her roof and in her care. You will be missed and you are loved Aunt Alisha. May your body be at rest and your soul be at peace. We love you now and forever.

Alisha was always there for me. We had many good times together. Amy and I lived with “The Tribe” for awhile and she was my little sister. She would give you the shirt off her back. Your light will shine in our hearts forever. Rest in the arms of Jesus and enjoy your eternal peace dear friend ❤️
