“ We never got to meet Allen but we really liked him because just looking at him we could tell he was a really great guy and he made our Jessica so happy that was easy to see also he was a great dad to both boys. I had hopes to one day get together so he would get to know us her Uncle Greg and Aunt Helen so we will meet a little later in Heaven RIP

“ I am deeply saddened to learn of the passing of a remarkable husband, father, and friend. His journey, including the span of the last three years of unwavering determination, left an indelible mark on all who were privileged to witness it.

In the time I knew Allen and his fight for life, he displayed an extraordinary resilience that inspired us all. But Jess, it was your unwavering faith, love and support that truly illuminated his path, filling each day with hope and strength.

In his passing, I mourn the loss of not simply a patient whom was dear to me but a cherished friend whose impact will be felt for years to come. May the memories of his courage and your enduring bond bring you comfort during this difficult time.
