Al was “Mr Muehr” to me as a pre-teen and teenager as the Dad of my closest classmate who was also a down the street neighbor. We spent many hours over there just hanging out and he was always so kind, energetic, and pleasant. He was a really good Dad to Connie and her brothers. I’m grateful for having known this great man back in the good ol’ days!

“ Aloys was our first cousin -- our double cousin -- his Mom was our Dad's sister, and Aloys' Dad was our Mother's brother -- the Louis Muehrs from Rosenberg and the Robert Heinrichs from High Hill were the best of cousins and friends. Our brother, Arnold and Aloys were only two years apart in age and they were friends. We loved all of them and when his parents died and then his brother, Wilbur and then his sister, Vivian, Aloys took up the mantle of staying in touch with us. He was a prince of a man -- he was caring, kind, funny, practical and faith-filled. He was a good man and that is one of the highest compliments we can give someone. Aloys always made it to important family events and brought love, laughter, energy and goodness into our midst. Our world is a kinder, gentler place because Aloys was here. I send my deepest sympathy to Connie, Mark and Paul and all of your families. I know you will miss his presence, which can't be replaced. Your Dad is in heaven, and as a good Dad, he continues to watch over all of you. May all of you feel the consolation of knowing that he is at peace and experiencing the joy of being with God and his family in heaven. Count on my love and prayers for all of you. “ I worked with Al many years at Nalco. He was a hard and conscientious worker. He was always professional and courteous. He was a dedicated Nalco employee. I respect him for that. R.I.P.

“ I had seen Al and his wife in Sacred Heart church for many years just never met him. I met Al in person only a few short weeks ago as I brought him Holy Communion. I was just getting to know him after a few visits and will miss him, he was truly a Catholic gentleman.
