

Alonzo A. Gongora

May 24, 1964 - November 4, 2015

Alonzo A. Gongora, of Missouri City, Texas passed away suddenly on November 4, 2015 in Sugar Land, Texas at the age of 51. He was born May 24, 1964 in Houston, Texas to Alonzo and Dolores V. Gongora. He grew up in Houston and graduated from Willowridge High School in Fort Bend County in 1982. He attended Blinn College.

Following college, Alonzo worked in his family's business before pursuing a career in radio. He worked for Cox Radio in Houston, New Wavo Communications in Conroe, TX, Noalmark Broadcasting in El Dorado, AR and internet-based Country Crossroads. Across his radio career he held positions in promotions and production, as well as being an on-air personality.

Underscoring his radio career was a love of all types of music, but particularly country music and classic rock. Alonzo started playing the drums when he was 4 years old, and continued throughout his lifetime. He also played guitar and bass. He performed in the marching bands at Willowridge High School and Blinn College, and was a member of several country and rock bands throughout his life. He spent his final years working as a professional musician, his life-time dream. Some of his favorite bands include "Cousin Earl" and "Southern Koast" in Arkansas, and "Delta Groove Factor" and "The Bobby D Sawyer Band" in Houston. Alonzo also loved photography, and worked as a professional photographer.

Alonzo had a generous spirit, always giving to others. He was a regular blood-donor, and participated in numerous activities supporting pediatric cancer research. Through his volunteer work, he met a special young girl, Julia, who was fighting pediatric cancer. She became his surrogate daughter. His final gift to the world was to be an organ and tissue donor. He always had a smile on his face, and was quick to make others laugh. This loving husband, son, brother and friend will truly be missed.

He is survived by his wife, Debra Anderson Corak, who he met when he was 14 years old. Following high school, they lost track of one another, but were reconnected via social media in 2010, and married in 2011. He is also survived by his parents, Alonzo and Dolores Gongora; brother, Richard Gongora; step-son, John Corak; parents-in-law, Clifford and Della Anderson; along with numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. He also leaves behind his beloved dog Morgan.

Visitation will be held from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m., with a Rosary at 7:00 p.m., Monday, November 9, 2015 in the Chapel of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home in Rosenberg.

The funeral mass will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 10, 2015 at St. Mark Evangelist Catholic Church in Houston.

Pallbearers will include: Arthur Garcia, Daniel Garcia, Thomas Garcia, Ellias Garza, Rafael Gongora, Rudy Gongora, Bobby D Sawyer, and Izzy Vences.

Tributes and words of condolence may be left for the family at www.davisgreenlawnfh.com. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Alonzo's memory to Snowdrop Foundation, Inc at <https://npo.justgive.org/nonprofits/donate.jsp?ein=20-4478536>

Arrangements are under the direction of Davis-Greenlawn Funeral Home,
3900 B.F. Terry Blvd., Hwy 59 South @ FM 2218 in Rosenberg, Texas 77471,
Phone: 281-341-8800.

“ God brought to us all a very special human being in Alonzo. I met him when I was his Band Director at Willowridge HS. I'll always remember his warm smile, his humor and kindness. He was a leader and big brother to our very young band as we started the Eagle Band those first years. He left wonderful memories for me and I'll never forget him. He was truly special. My prayers go out to the family and all that were blessed to know him.

“ I met KC when he walked into LifeShare Blood Centers, Eldorado, AR. to fill out a job application in 2010. He and I started working together, side by side, mostly just the two of us shortly after. He has been one of the GREATEST friends ANYONE could ask for. Such a team player, people person, GENEROUS, unselfish, CARING, HILARIOUS, thoughtful, dependable, COMPASSIONATE....WOW, the list goes on and on...
He and I became GREAT FRIENDS. We went to Christian concerts together, dinner together, I helped him move, he helped me with several things, we did devotionals together, we fed the homeless one Thanksgiving together, I could confide in him and he in me, we told each other everything. He came to by baptism for that special moment in my life. I moved to FL in August 2011 and it was SO hard to leave my friend. The memories I will carry with me and cherish for the rest of my days are MANY. I love you, KC. Your sufferings are over. And your heavenly rewards are GREAT. Be seeing you.
