“ Michael, Stephanie, Dylan, Dalton & Family,

There are absolutely no words to express the sorrow we feel for all of you and all that had the priviledge of knowing Angel. She was an Angel here on earth and is now.....TRULY AN ANGEL IN HEAVEN. She is an Angel now in every sense of her name. What a beautiful Angel she is!

May you look to God for his Strength and Love to get you through this horrible tragedy.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

“ The first time I saw Angel she was a tiny tot. Her daddy Mike brought her to my house with her brothers.to spend the day with my son Jory Wisocki and me. She was surrounded by boys Jory and Jeff Wisocki ~ her 2 brothers Dylan & Dalton and my 2 grandsons Destin & Dillon Wisocki as well as her daddy. She enjoyed swinging on my porch swing and trying to keep up with all the activity. I have a beautiful photo of her from that day. Such a precious little blond. I only saw her a few more times in her brief life.

Her dad and my son Jory are close friends since they were around 9 or 10.

Words cannot express the pain and grief that her death has caused us.

My heart aches for Mike & Stephanie and sons. My prayers are with them and all the close Cartwright family, cousins, aunts, and friends. Life will never be the same without her but her memory will live on in all their hearts. She is truly an Angel now.

“ It is not for us who stand afar to try to estimate or your pain over the passing of your sweet Angel. But know that we struggle with the same grief and want your loving family to know the we suffer immensely right along with you. Please take from us whatever spiritual strength you need as we give generously at this time. In One body of Christ we dwell and we feed each other in our times of hunger, and we love each other in our times of loneliness. May God give all of you the peace and love you so need to overcome your heartbreak. Thru him we are all redeemed in life as well as eternal life. Let sweet Angel's spirit not ebb from our lives for the rest of our own days til we are with her again in the Lords Kingdom for eternity.

God Bless
