“ Don:

Roxana and I have known you for over 30 years. Because we worked together for so many years we saw much more of you than we did of Anita. But we will always remember her for her cheerful, bubbly personality. It was always a pleasure to be around her. I can't imagine what it will be like for Becky, Chris and you to move on without her.

You are all in our prayers.

“ Oh, Anita, I was SO looking forward to spending time with you now that Nick and his family live in Sugar Land. Selfish, huh? Just know that Bobby and I love you and cherish the times we had together, especially when Becky and Nick were babies. We have so much to be thankful for --- You blessed your family and friends with your beautiful love and laughter..... and I know you will wrap them in your loving arms. With love and prayers for Don, Becky, Chris, and family....Liz and Bobby

“ Our friendship started over 35 years ago and has continued to this day. I thought I'd always have you to lean on and ask your opinion on different things. You always had the right direction or answer. I know you fought to the end. I only wish you could have stayed awhile longer, but that is selfish of me. You will never be forgotten. We all loved you so much. Godspeed my dearest friend and watch over us until we meet again.
