“ My Aunt Ruth was a godly lady until she got sick. She distanced herself from her family that loved her. She allowed a man to come into her life to swine her out of what money and belongings she own. I hope she rest in peace

“ I met Annie in 2009 when she became a patient at our medical office. She was such a sweet and dear lady, and a little feisty! Every year at Christmas she would bring us a platter of the best homemade cookies fresh from her kitchen, until her health started to decline.

Annie will be forever missed and in my heart.

Annie I hope you are dancing in heaven with my Mom who recently passed.
