

Antje Giesla Swann

January 22, 1945 - March 11, 2026

Antje Giesla Swann, 81, passed away March 11, 2026. Born January 22, 1945, in Germany. Her family immigrated to Australia where Antje was the eldest of six children. She grew up loyally caring for her brothers and sisters, two which were disabled, with extraordinary compassion and empathy that defined her. Antje raised three children all over the world whilst following her husband of 33 years. For many years Antje cared tirelessly for her ill husband, Archie H. Swann, until his passing. Her ability to care for others drew Antje to returned to school later in life to become a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). Her desire to care for others also was apparent in her kitchen which was a haven of warmth, famed for her unmatched cooking, steak grilling and cookies baking. An eternal kid at heart, Antje was a youthful spirit who loved fun and had an ability to connect with all ages. Antje cherished playing games and working jigsaw puzzles, bringing joy to every gathering.

Antje is survived by her three children: John Swann of Richmond, VA (Andrea); Amanda Schwarz (Max) of Atoka, TN; and Daniel Swann of Houston, TX. She is also lovingly remembered by four grandsons Matthew Shane Swann (Hillary) of Jarrell, TX; Cullen Schwarz (Hailey) of Belton, TX; Peyton Schwarz of Memphis, TN; Joshua Swann, one great grandson, Barrett Swann; and dearest friends, Ron and Margie Grier.

In honor of Antje, the family encourages everyone to embrace their inner child, laugh loudly, love freely, and never miss an opportunity to find delight in the small things.

Antje's boundless heart lives on in all she nurtured. In lieu of flowers, consider donations to the Disabled American Veterans Association in her honor.

“ No words can express the sadness we feel of our dear friend Antje. We met on Herald Square in March 1973! How we loved sitting out front of our houses, watching the kids play! I could never figure out how Antje could eat those big chocolate bars and never gain a pound. We both went through many ups and downs, but we were always there anytime to talk. Birthdays, weddings, Graduations and funerals always there! I so miss you dear friend!
