“ I personally did not know Mrs Aguirre, although she was a beautiful person. I do know alot about her and the way she raised her family. One of my better friends in the Military was her son Alex, whom was in my squad. His parents have every right to be proud of him, ne was a good friend and an excellent soldier whom I was very lucky to serve in Viet Nam with. He was exempletary in all things he did and those he befriended. I knew his parents were very special. I understand his brother Joe was killed in VN, I had met him also. Both were loving brothers from a loving family. I only found this while trying to locate Alex and I am terribly sorry to find out this way. May God give you peace...

“ When I was small 5 years old,we were living on the farm and some cattle had gone thru a fence and Mom went out, saddled a horse, mounted it and bent on the saddle with an outstretched hand and said "Bente hijo, no tengas meado",. I reached out and she gently grabbed my hand and pulled me up behind her.
When my time comes she will come back again and reach out for me and tell me "Come my son, do not be afraid".
