“ As a father he was loving and always there when we needed him. His children were his world and his grandchildren well you couldn't describe the love he had for them. I discussed lots of things most children don't have the opportunity to do so with my dad including death. He wasn't ready to go he told me, but his faith was sooo strong that when God called upon him he knew it was time to go. But after leaving to be with the all mighty, God sent us a little bundle of joy his great grandson , Brett Antonio Galvan, who filled the void off sadness and emptiness when God our father call my dad Tony to service in heaven. You are loved and will be deeply missed pops till next time we see each other again.

*Love

My brother was 16 years old when I was born. The love he had for his wife, children and grandchildren was indescribable. The love he had with our mother was such an aspiration. His words written on my 1st autograph book when I was 12 years old left such a profound impression in my heart. Those written words are forever engraved in my heart❤️ "To my sister who is not only the brightest in complexion but in mind & heart. Put God first and He will always guide you in life. Love your brother, Antonio C Galvan. We shared pain, mistakes, love & forgiveness. Our faith in God and His unconditional love gave us assurance that nothing will ever separate us. I love you forever. Your sister Bea❤️❤️
