Arnold was born October 9, 1929 in Rosenberg to William and Emma Smejdovec Barcak. Ahtha or Noldie, as he was affectionately known by those who loved him, was fiercely independent yet a kind and gentle soul. Honest and hard working, with laughing blue eyes that would have an extra sparkle when someone he loved or a friend stopped by for a visit, he loved the outdoors. In his younger years, he hunted and fished with his father, William, his big brother, Jerome and his Uncle John. In recent years he would grab his cane pole, get a few grub worms and go to the ditch and catch a mud cat or two for supper. Later he would remark about the good supper he had. He passed away peacefully in his sleep on the family farm on Friday, June 11, 2010.
