“ Dear Tammy, I hope this poem will give you some comfort.

THERE ARE STARS up above, so far away we only see their light long, long after the star itself is gone. And so it is with people that we loved -- their memories keep shining ever so brightly though their time with us is done. But the stars that light up the darkest night, these are the lights that guide us. As we live our days, these are the ways we remember. Hannah Senesh author.

Ashlee is one of those STARS shining ever so brightly.

“ Tammy, I pray the words of our Lord will comfort you today and always:

We do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage each other with these words. I Thessalonians 4:13-18

“ *Schoenfeld Family,
You don't know me; but, as I was reading the your daughter's obituary, I felt I had to reach out. I lost my 16 year old grandson August 29, 2014. He was my life. I still cry and pray every day. I found a book written by Adam Hamilton titled "WHY? Making Sense of God's Will". It has helped. May God Bless You.*

“ On behalf of the students at George Ranch High School, I want to send my prayers to your family! I did not get to meet Ashlee, but my daughter, Elyza and her BFF Kasey spoke of her often. They are hurt so badly by this tragedy, and all of Ashlee's friends at school have been heartbroken by it as well. From what the girls told me, Ashlee was a very funny, smart, caring, and highly spirited young lady. I cry tears to see her friends hurting so badly over this. I pray that GOD gives your family the strength to get through this tough time! I know that her memory will forever be in the hearts of all of her friends and the teachers at George Ranch High School! GOD BLESS!

“ Ashley, Through your father I met you just once for about 30 minutes and we had a very serious heart-to-heart talk. I hope you remembered our conversation because I walked away caring so much for you. Right-away I felt your kind and gentle spirit and thought of you often after that and hoped and prayed that you were doing well. It is indescribable how shocked and saddened I was by the news of your passing. You are an angel and we will all be together again soon.

“ My heart goes out to the family. I did not know her parents but I knew Ashlee well. My thoughts are everywhere right now but one thing I know is God is not sleep and makes no mistake. So family hold your head up and put God first and with time it gets better. That doesn't mean you won't have tough times BC you will. But in all things acknowledge him. God bless you guys!
