“ Howard, we are so sorry for your loss. I know from talking to you at the DPS Reunion how much you cared for Ava. Even though we did not get to know Ava very well, you have been a friend for a long time. Our lives just took us in different directions since the days in Richmond. God Bless you & yours.

“ Dear Howard family, I am so dearly sorry for the loss of Ava. She played a big part in my life and brought me to my adoptive parents when i was young and always checked in on me when I would see her.. I am greatly gonna miss her and knowing she is in heaven with our Awesome God gives me great comfort and joy..She was such a beautiful person both inside and out. I just want to thank the Howard family for letting me be a part of their lives. Love you all and May God Bless you and comfort you through this time of sorrow.

“ Howard,
I love you brother. Rest assured that Ava is walking the Streets of Gold with our Precious Saviour Jesus Christ today. Brother, you still have a lot of life to live and Ava wants the very best for you. You went all the way for her in your love and care for her when she wasn't able to do for herself. You should have no regrets. I know your heart Brother. You will join her in Heaven when Jesus beckons you home. Right now, take it one step at a time. She's in good hands, able to walk again and has perfect vision. God is in control and all is well with Ava. If there is anything I can do, you know you can always count on me. I love you brother and will be praying that God will relieve the grief and give you a glimpse of what's to come today. Your family and friends need you now and we will be here for you in the days to come. Rick

“ We knew Ava dearly through her husband Howard Long who we have the pleasure of working with. His stories of him and Ava or just Ava gave us all the sense of knowing her for the wonderful person she was and how she brightened his days! Though she is gone her memories will always stay with us.
