“ My family had us four kids. As we would go see our grandma Bacica, our aunt, uncle had two sons, our cousins Brian and Woody. As we were younger we'd end up going to their house where, at times we could play basketball, feed the horses or watch Brian and Woody do their chores. Kids always liked to play with other kids rather than being with adult conversations. Aunt Adeline was always so nice to us and Uncle Woodrow was usually working, so we looked to play with the boys when we could since there wasn't much activity to be had with the adults. I remember Brian being the friendliest. I always thought he was cute. Years have passed and everyone has their families and we've grown much older. Thank you for the kind things, the sweet things you gave us during your life, Brian. My prayers for you are that you have peace in eternity! I also pray for the comfort for all your family that are still here on this earth. Your cousin Sharron.
