“ I am so sorry for your loss, I may not have the words to comfort you but I hope my love and friendship is a sign of the care that I have for you. Lean on God in this time and remain close to your family and friends and take comfort and support from each other. Shari, if you ever need to talk or a shoulder on which to cry on, please feel free to know I am here for you. Love always, Richard Arriaga.

“ Gee Whiz, What a sad thing....I was a friend of Barbara's in our young years and knew the whole family. She certainly was a beautiful lady who played a great game of Mah Jongg. Just keep having wonderful memories!!

“ You were born together, and together you shall be forevermore.

You shall be together when the white wings of death scatter your days

Ay, you shall be together even in the silent memory of God.

The white wings of death have scattered our days and we are together.

God is, I am, we are, one...

“ May 2, 1940 you changed the world forever! November 10, 2012 the lives of many forever changed for the world lost an amazing lady. The unconditional love you have for us will forever remain in our hearts.

Despite the grief and sorrow we have in our hearts, please know that we all find comfort in knowing that you are at peace and being comforted in the arms of Grandma Dee and Grandpa Al.

You demonstrated the true meaning of unconditional love within a family. Not only are you an amazing wife, mother, and grandmother, you are our best friend.

Forever in your absence there will be a hole in the hearts of the many you have touched. So please take comfort that you created a lifetime of wonderful memories as a family and your legacy will remain in the hearts of each and every one of us!!

Dad you said it best, she truly is a "PRINCESS"!
