“ Barbara, I was truly saddened to hear of your sudden death. I know that you believed in Our Lord and Savior and you ALWAYS would give Him thanks and praise. I know how much pain you were in and you feeling as if you were not the woman you once were. You were so WRONG!!! You were MUCH, MUCH more. You touched many lives, even if you didn't think you did, and I will miss that.

Alex and Chris there are no words that I can say to make you feel better or heal you any faster. Have faith in God and take it day by day.

I will miss Barbara and I hope you and my daddy give the angels a run for their "money"!!!!

“ I'm a good friend of the family for many of years. They are like my family. I lived in the same apts with Barbra she was very caring and friendly person. anything you needed or if she can help you she would i will miss that beautiful smile and her jokes. It was hard to me when i heard about her going home to her new home. But i know she has a new address in heavenly home with Jesus. She dont have no more pain and no more problem. She is made whole again. With Our Heavenly Father. I use to sit out side with Barbra under the tree bye her side of the apt and we talk about what Jesus has done for her and what he done for me. So I know that she is in heaven with alot of angles she will be watching over mama and pops and Erma and the rest of her family along with her lovely son's Alex and Chris. Keep your Faith in God and He will Heal you threw your pain. I will be there for the Regalado Family. Love yall Sharon L. Harris and Family!!!!!!!!!!
