“ I met Bart about 25 years ago. He and I got to be real good friends. I was also able to meet his Mom and she welcomed me into her home. I had just gone through a divorce and Bart and I were living on Regency Square Drive. And there was a pizza place that he and I ran for awhile. We both took turns cooking and delivering pizzas. I just happened to research for him on Facebook and noticed that Bart has passed. I wanted to offer my condolences to all his family and friends.

“ I grew up just down the street from the family and, got to know both bart and, brett and, have only just now learned about barts death just a few months ago and, I take the Houston Chronicle so, I can't, see how I missed, his obituary in the paper who were like brothers to me brett, being a year or so older and, bart, just a little boy who, was like a nephew/younger brother to me even now since, I moved out of town years ago. My last, memory of him was when he sat on santa lap when we had our picture taken once which, I still, have today and, used, to go visit his family when I lived down the street from them till I moved away. He will, be missed and, is now sitting by the side of Jesus and God and is watching over his family.

“ I was very shocked to hear about Bart's passing. He was a great mentor and a great person. During my first year here at VTG I knew him as always being so cheerful and willing to assist anyone who needed help. He will definitely be missed and I extend my sincere condolences to his family and friends. My prayers are with you Bart!

“ To Barts Family,

I have had the pleasure of knowing Bart through his precious daughter Madison and her wonderful mother Rachel. What a guy! What a dad! I rejoice for Bart for he is where we all are striving to be one day and yet I mourn for the rest of us who will miss his laugh, his smile and his good heart. After attending the service today I was once again reminded of just how precious our lives really are and how lucky that little girl is to never have to question how much her daddy loved her. What a gift he left her!!!! Absolutely priceless just like Bart. I believe the best way to celebrate Barts life is for the rest of us to live ours without regrets, to love fully and to laugh! Thanks Bart. This is not goodbye just a "see ya later"

*God Bless,

“ Although we never really spoke to eachother, when we passed one another there was always a "Hi" or "How are you" shared always with a smile on your face. A smile that you don't forget. You will be missed by so many that you have touched. My prayers go out to your daughter, family and friends. You will be missed Bart!!

“ How sad the news was of Bart's passing. I hope that the many prayers being said on your behalf will be a comfort. It has been too many years since I have seen Bart; I have great memories of him as a baby and child. He was so precious to me. You all will always have a special place in my heart and will remain in my prayers.

“ You will be missed Bart! You were a great manager! I remember when I first saw your picture of your daughter on your desk, I ask was that your daughter and your face lit up. Of course I already knew she had to be your daughter because she was the split image of you.

I know this is a hard time for all his family and friends my prayers is with you all!

“ Reading all these posts helps the healing process for me. To know so many people outside our family loved and respected my brother tells me what a great person he really was. Bart will be missed by many and time will heal our hearts, but the wounds will always be there to let us remember what a great man Barton Wade Garrett was. Rest in peace bud! I love you!

“ My interaction with Bart was at work. However, he always presented a "calmness" when I needed assistance-and in the begining-that was truly appreciated.

I am a better man for having known him. God Speed

“ In the short time I knew Bart, he was always there to help. Really nice guy. His laughter always made me laugh. Every morning while downstairs in CBRs, he would read emails or messages, and just break out in laughter. It always woke me up, really gonna miss a guy I hardly really knew. I still look at your desk and maybe you're still there, eating croutons. Can you put a courtesy hold on for me when the big guy says it's time?

Rest in Peace

“ Bart was the most joyful person that I knew. You'd never believe that he'd pulled a prank when he did, and you could never resist that smile that ensured today would be a good day. He was a blessing to have as a friend, and I will remember and miss him for a lifetime. May God bless his baby girl that always lit up his eyes when he would speak about her, and may He comfort this family of people who loved Bart.

“ I was fortunate to sit next to Bart during my training in the "quiet room". I always thought he was the nicest and most patient person I knew. I would listen to how he would handle customer service issues and he always displayed a professional attitude regardless of how angry they made him which is something I have incorporated into my customer service skills. I will miss you dearly and my prayers and condolences go out to your daughter and family.

Rest in peace, Bart.....

“ We were fortunate to get to meet Bart through his sister Dena at various gatherings over the past 20 or so years. Bart's presence at any function was always enough to bring a smile or a happy memory. We join in sorrow the family and all those who were blessed to have known Bart, and will miss him.

“ Bart,

I recall during the time I was in training walking past your desk in the mornings and saying Good Morning or sharing a joke and a laugh in the afternoons and walking away the better for it. You were always a constant help to me in the beginning and I appreciate that more than anything else. I always respected your professional approach and the example you set. You will be in my prayers as will your family.

“ Japanese Proverb states "The reputation of a thousand years may be determined by the conduct of one hour." In the short time I have known you Bart and known those who have also known you, I can say that your reputation of being kind, caring, devoted, and genuine may last an eternity. To have lived on this Earth and left such a positive impact on those who lives you touched is proof of a great person and that legacy can never be taken away. My heartfelt condolences go out to your family and those who knew you best as well as those who didn't have the opportunity to know you better.

“ When I first started as a new employee at Vacations TO Go, Bart was my mentor inon the new sales team. He was always extremely kind, patient, and helpful. He always had a smile on his face and was always willing to help in any way that he could. I am shocked and saddened at his passing, and wish to extend my condolences to his family. He was a wonderful person and I am sure that he will be sorely missed.

“ “Is that your granddaughter?” This was the beginning of ongoing jokes that made the workday go by a little smoother. There is no doubt about the love he had for his daughter. He came to work one day dressed a little nicer than usual and I asked “hot date tonight?” To which he replied “Yes, with my daughter.” He was pretty excited about his first father-daughter dance.

Bart I will miss you and my sincerest condolences to his family and friends.

“ Over the last 7 years since Bart came to work at VTG, I have gotten to know him as a kind and gentle man, with a heart for teaching and coaching. It's so sad when such a person passes away as it leaves a great void in all of our lives. I pray that his daughter, his circle of “boys”, and all who knew him and loved him, carry on his spirit of generosity and compassion. I'll never forget his smile, which seemed to be a constant reminder of his happiness and joy in life. He will be missed and remembered fondly. Rest in peace.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Though I did not get to know Bart well, I like his smile and the kindness he demonstrated in teaching me how to do my job.

He will be walking by to see if someone needed something, and all of a sudden he will push my chair, like teasing me. His way of saying hi or just for me to notice he was there. I thought that was funny.

Only God knows why we die in such different ways. I pray to God for His strength to help you get through these tough moments. May His peace surrounds and comfort you and your family.
