“ Beatrice was a woman with strength and love. She had kindness for each of us each time she spoke with us. She had a fierceness when it came to her faith, always encouraging me to further mine. We talked about our similar experiences in life. She thanked me one time for sharing and she said to continue to share because it can reach others that need help, sometimes it helps to know someone that went through the same difficulties. She also said to continue handing my life to God, to let God work through me for others. I will never forget how open she was to trying new things. She'll be missed.

May the Holy Spirit surround you, Beatrice, and welcome you home.

“ This is devastating news. Beatrice was truly a special individual. Her positive demeanor, energetic spirit, and optimistic viewpoint are rare in a cynical world. I don't think I can recall a single day where I saw her without her bright, beautiful smile. She took pride in her work and she genuinely cared for others. Beatrice spoke often about her family, whom she adored, and about her strong faith. She had such a sharp mind and deep interest in many things.

Beatrice accepted everyone, no matter what age, race, gender, position in life, and she had a natural way of making others feel welcome and included. I enjoyed our many conversations and I will miss her a great deal. I extend heartfelt condolences to her family for this loss. Please know that she will be remembered by so, so many. She touched more lives than she could ever imagine, and I am grateful to have known her for the time that I did.

“Beatrice, you were more than a co-worker but you were a sister in the Lord and because of this the news hits harder. Your silliness, your presence, and our faith-filled conversations will be cherished and missed. You helped me get through the craziness of this pandemic and reminded me that God was in control. Your seeds of love and prayers over me meant the world. I have all the confidence that this is not the end but just the beginning of your legacy. To the Gallegos & Vasquez family my infinite prayers of comfort and peace will be over you all as you celebrate and honor Beatrice in the coming days.
