“ David and all O'dell family,

Bea and I worked together at M. W Kellogg for 10+ years. She, Kathy P. and I were very good friends and at least once a month we would splurge having dinner together. Splurge meant going to a 4 Star restaurant and enjoyed food, drinks and fellowship. I spent many hours looking at pictures from her cruises, vacation, special family occasions, and the marriages of her children and the birth of the grandchildren. She so loved her family. I lost track of Bea just after her granddaughter's wedding when she was in Phoenix. I often asked Tony Vacca about Bea and if he had news. Tony advised me of Bea's passing and it is time like this that I am able to recall all the wonderful memories that we shared. Your Mother was greatly loved and she loved greatly as well. I send many condolences and sympathy to all of you experiencing this tremendous loss.
