“ I just found out about Ben's passing. I worked with him as his producer at KPRC for only six short months before I went back to NBC/NY. We had a great time working together and enjoyed the quick cigarette breaks at the top of the hour CBS news. He was a real radio pro!

“ To The Oldag Family, I send my condolences. My Uncle, Willie Hisoire was good friends with Ben. I've heard so much about Ben through Uncle Willie. I'm sorry I never got to meet Ben but I did get to talk to Ben on the phone once. I loved the sound of his voice. My Mom Ruth Youmans sends her condolences too.

“ Mr. Oldag was an excellent friend of nature and an excellent neighbor, from what I know. I appreciate his years of service to Richmond and the Houston area. I was saddened to learn of his passing. Hopefully, his Norfolk Pines live on.

“ I just wanted to extend my sympathies to the Oldag family. I met Mr Oldag when I was a youngster attending Holy Rosary Catholic School with his son, Mark. I remember most vividly every year at the bazaar Mr Oldag would act as auctioneer and how I was fascinated at how he could talk so fast and yet so clearly. I also have a memory of standing out in a field and watching with very little interest as Mr Oldag was showing my dad some different ways to deal with meaning "get rid of" fire ants.

To Mark and the entire Oldag family, please know you're in our thoughts and prayers in this difficult time. He will be missed by a great many people.

“ In times of grief and sorrow, we look to family, friends, and Jesus Christ for comfort. We are saddened to hear of Ben' passing. However, our faith reminds us of the promises that Jesus Christ gave us. A poem written by E. Brenneman is one that has personally brought comfort to this family.

"His Journey's Just Begun"

*Don't think of him as gone away--
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets-- this earth is only one.*

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

*Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.*

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched for nothing loved is ever lost-and he was loved so much.

*Comfort from above,
Howard and OraLee Plengemeyer and family.*

“ Ben played a major role in the introduction of the TRIUMPHS to our general "listening area." We were keenly aware of his support for our group during his stint at KFRD and for years thereafter. We, like many, many other folks, will miss him.

“ My deepest sympathies to the Ben Oldag Family. I had the pleasure of meeting Ben when I was a young boy going to school at Holy Rosary Catholic School. His youngest son Mark and I were in the same grade. We all knew that Ben was a famous radio celebrity, so meeting him was a real treat. His wit and wisdom will be sorely missed. The good Lord needed some help with His plants I suppose so He called the best to come help.

“ To Sophie and all who loved Ben,

Not only was Ben a consummate professional whose talent and knowledge far eclipsed that of present-day radio hosts, he was also as kind and encouraging as any man could be. The world of radio has lost an icon. The rest of us have lost a wonderful friend, who will not be forgotten.

God bless you, Ben and thank you for who you were and what you gave to all of us.

“ OMG, Ben was one of the special people in radio. I remember a story about some exotic wood being shipped into the Port of Houston. Carved into the wood was a greeting to Ben from the lumberjacks who cut it down in South America! Ben was always helpful about gardening, even for those of us with brown thumbs. I worked with Ben at KPRC-AM for many years. I will miss him.

“ I will always have wonderful memories of Uncle Ben. As a kid, I always thought he was so handsome and fun, and he always drove those really cool cars! He was so friendly to everyone he met. I didn't see him much in recent years. When I did see him though, it always felt like it hadn't been that long. Uncle Ben will be missed by many people. He was a very special man. His memory will live on for generations to come.

“ I never met Ben Oldag but felt as if I knew him; I got up early many weekends to listen to him on the radio. He was so kind and patient with all us ignorant gardeners. Another kind soul goes to heaven.

“ To the Oldag Family,
I had the pleasure of meeting Ben through my husband, Mike Edmonds, who worked with him at KTRH. I have fond memories of his teasing me about my cooking, offering "advice" on how to be a "good wife" and just generally of how kind he was. I hope he meets up with Mike, as they were both angels who loved their families and loved life.

“ I AM DEEPLY SORRY TO HEAR THAT BEN IS GONE. HE AND I WERE IN THE NAVY "BOOT" CAMP IN EARLT FEBRUARY AND MARCH OF 1951. WE WERE THE ONLY TWO THAT COULD SPEAK AND UNDERSTAND CZECH SO THAT MADE US GOOD "BUDDIES". HE WAS MY INTERPERTER WHEN I RECEIVED SOME MAIL FROM GRANDFATHER WHO WOULD WRITE IN CZECH. HE AND I SPLIT UP AFTER AWHILE IN THE NAVY, BUT I ALWAYS FELT IN TOUCH WITH HIM DOING HIS RADIO BROADCASTS. I MISS YOU BEN. JIM FILLIP
