“ *Dear Brandon and Angie,
We are so sorry we didn't get to meet little Bennett. We are sure he was like his daddy, strong, handsome and having beautiful manners. I would also be willing to lay odds he could be the most formidable baby in the nursery when called upon, like all the Kahl boys!
I hope we get to meet Ellie Grace one day soon. JB tells us she is beautiful.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you. The Gallaghers*

“ Angie and Brandon,

Words can't express what I am feeling about your loss. I have been on this journey with you and I am devastated that Bennett has been taken from you after such a short stay. He fought a tough battle and everyone who followed his progress will grieve with you. Thank you for sharing Bennett's life with us.

“ Angie and Brandon, No right words can ever be found when you lose your own child. Your faith is so strong and your love for God will get you through. You were so blessed to be with Bennett for 6 months and have all those very precious memories. Ellie was so blessed to have such a strong brother and strong parents. My heart aches knowing how difficult it is to be where you are. May God bless you, may His light shine upon and may you find peace.

“ Brandon and Angie,

I have been following your BabySite for quite a while now. I just wanted to say how strong both of you are. Even though Bennett is gone, he has made a tremendous impact on so many, many of who you don't know. Hold on to the memories - those tender kisses and sweet hugs - they will keep you going!!

“ Angie & Brandon,
We are so devastated to hear of your loss. We feel privileged to have met all of you at the NICU and are sad that we didn't get a chance to say goodbye. I have been thinking of you all day and I can't imagine your sorrow losing beautiful Bennett. Your faith is so strong and he is with Jesus now and one day you will all be together again. Praying for you all.

“ Thank you once again for allowing me to care and love your little sweet boy. Your family has changed me in so many ways. The strength and faith the two of you have shown has only been outdone by one person, Bennett. I will be telling stories about him and remembering his precious life all the rest of mine. He touched every person’s soul he came in contact with him. Thank you for sharing him with us.

“ Angie and Brandon, please know that all of your friends and co-workers grieve alongside you. You have truly been an inspiration to us all and we lift you up to the Father for comfort and strength during the difficult days ahead. It's wonderful to know that Bennett is safe now in the Father's arms. God bless you.

“ Bennett showed us the meaning of "I can do all things through Christ Which strengtheneth me." Philippians 4:13 The "I Think I Can" attitude from devoted parents along with tremendous faith led Bennett to his prize. "We are confident, I say and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." II Corinthians 5:8 Your family testimony has touched hundreds of people. We are forever grateful for Bennett's powerful witness. Love, The Ollre Family

“ Brandon and Angie;

Donna and I are truly sorry for your loss, and for the many battles poor Bennett had to endure. We were both in tears when we read the bad news. Thanks so much for sharing your 'Babysite'. Your pictures and comments were heartwarming, but also caused us to feel some of the sadness and pain which the four of you have suffered during this lengthy ordeal.

We just know that little Bennett will be fondly remembered through Ellie Grace, as she grows up. We wish her good health as she carries the burden and the joy of having to live for two, and we hope she doubles the memories for the two of you. Donna's late mom was also named Grace, and was as gracious and gentle as her name.

*We will keep you in our prayers, and hope this sad event in your lives will be brightened by the happiness and joy of watching your little Ellie Grace grow up. May God bless you and your family,
