“ Dear Hustede family,

I didn't actually know your Dad, but he made an impression on me just the same and I was shocked to see his obit. I walk my dog every morning in the alley behind my house and come out onto Tobola. So many mornings Mr. Bennie, driving his truck with dear Millie beside him, would stop and chat for a minute. That's how it started one day; he just stopped to be neighborly plus seeing another dog lover, I suppose. Like someone else wrote here, he was always smiling and had a twinkle in his eye; you could tell he was a good, decent man. And there was so much love there for his canine companion. Anyway, I know you don't know me, but I wanted to say your Dad will be missed. I think of him now on my morning walks. May God be with you, and I hope you know that I am thankful for people like your father, who make this a little smaller, kinder world.
