“ I knew Mrs. Vickers for many years. She was a wonderful woman and mother with a sweet spirit who loved to laugh. It proves that laughter is good for the heart and soul evident by the long full life she lived. She was fun to be around and enjoyed a good time with her family and friends. I know this to be true. As with other loved ones who have gone on ahead, there is now a hole in the universe that she occupied, which will never be filled. She will be missed greatly. But let us rejoice, she has traded in her old rugged cross for a new crown.
