“ Aunt Bessie was an important figure to me during my formative years and even into my adulthood. I didn't get to visit with her very often as we lived in the Bryan- College Station area, but the visits we had were always joyful and meaningful. She always presented herself as a wonderful Christian lady. What a joy she must have been as a spouse, parent and grandparent! I know she was a wonderful aunt.

“ Spent many childhood days at the Fagan's. Since we had no family in Rosenberg the Sally Anne family is still the most dear to me. Bessie was a wonderful lady, always so calm and loving. She and Bob were so giving of their time to others after retirement. Bob, Peggy, Joanie and Doris Ann I loved your wife and mom and I hurt for your loss. She is now no longer in pain and in the arms of God. May you find comfort in the days ahead, enjoy each other and the memories of all the wonderful times you had. To all the grandchildren and spouses you had a great lady in your life, cherish those memories.
