“ Beth you are loved.

15 years ago I came home from my honeymoon to a house full of amazing Horse women. One of those ladies was Beth. It was a surprise party they had brought food and cake we laughed and had so much fun. But the bigger surprise came when we went to bed and someone had short sheeted and put rice in our bed. We laughed I thought it was funny and felt loved. These amazing women we're going to make our night very memorable.

Approximately two weeks later I got a phone call from Beth apologizing for short sheeting our bed she said "I got caught up in the moment" she felt so sorry. That was the moment I fell in love with Beth she is a good friend so caring and loving but also has a fun heart.

I assured her it was so funny and then it just made us feel more loved. She didn't believe me.

Many times in the next 14 years when she would think about it she would apologize and I always told her that we loved it, it was fun, it was funny but she never believed me.

On the day this beautiful angel died I felt such grief such sadness such love, and also I thought now you know the truth. What you did was actually really funny and endeared you to my heart. I will forever miss you my friend!!

“ Miss Beth was only in our lives for about a decade but showed us so much love during the time we shared with her. She was so loving to my family and my daughters and will be dearly missed by us all. She was so funny and always put a smile on your face when you were around her. She had such a kind and compassionate soul and will forever be in the hearts of those she touched. We are so thankful to her for giving us our dog, Belle, who has brought so much joy to our household. Her love for people and animals will never be forgotten.

“ I met Beth through my sister, Fran Kehr. Whenever I came to TX and she was able, she came to see me at Windy Knoll Farm and tell me how much she missed me. Beth and I shared a love of the arts, especially music, and she showed a keen interest in concerts I attended. Moreover, she was wonderful to my sister and to her horses. A gentle and generous lady who will really be missed.
