“ *To Beverly's Family
I graduated from S'burg High with Beverly. Along with many of the other friends Beverly had, I enjoyed being with her - always happy and very upbeat. One of my favorite memories is having a "taffy pull" at her house. I have been out of touch with her, but still have many memories of the "fun" times we had while attending S'burg High.*

“ Beverly was a friend of mine at Schulenburg High School. She was younger than me but we all were friends crossing grades.

I remember her as a sweet girl who always was smiling and appeared to be happy. I was sorry to hear of her passing just today.

May she rest in peace and peace to her family and friends as well.

“ I met Beverly at Fantastic Sams in the late 80's. I had also worked with her at Prime Haircuts. We have always kept in touch. I am deeply saddened by her passing and will greatly miss her. One of her witty quotes I always enjoyed and will always remember is "You are either fast or you are last."

“ Beverly and I worked together at Texas Eastern Transmission in the early 70's and have been friends for over 40 years. I was her beautician and she was my beautician. She was a wonderful person and a dear friend. I will miss her soooo much. Love and condolences to her family, Georgetta
