“ Donald and Lisa,

*I know how immensely you miss your Dad and friend. You probably will until you are reunited but hopefully, someday, you will remember him with laughter and smiles instead of tears. Remember, that God never leaves you alone in your pain, nor will He ever forget. We are also here for you if you need anything. We love you,

“ Ruby, Donald, Bryce, Kirk, Cindy and families. Billy was a good cousin to me when we lived across the street from each other on Cartwright Rd. in Stafford. When Uncle Bill and my dad J.D. farmed rice together, Billy would let me ride on the tractor when they cut the rice. We have many memories of all the cousins getting together. Uncle Bill and Billy helped when we built the First Baptist Church in Stafford where I was saved and later years married. Will miss him but what a wonderful Gray reunion we will have one day in heaven. Love all of you and our prayers will go on for you. Yours cousins,
