Blasa Hernandez Chavez (La Charra) was surrounded by her family when she went to be with the Lord on December 12, 2019. Blasa was born in Fulshear Texas on October 4th, 1929 to Encarnicio and Maria Balboa Hernandez.

Blasa is preceded in death by her 3 sisters and 4 brothers, her late husband Santiago Chavez Sr, her granddaughter Angelita Rios and her late son in law Scott Stubblefield.

Blasa is survived by her sisters Dominga Chavez, Sara Gonzalez, her brother, Encarnacion "John" Hernandez, her 10 children: Virginia Linares and husband Charlie Linares, Enrique Chavez, Sophia Chavez Lewis and husband James Lewis, Doris Palomarez and husband Raymond Palomarez, Josie Stubblefield and her late husband Scott Stubblefield, Juanita (Janie) Chavez, Camilo Chavez and his late wife Joyce Chavez, Santiago Jr. Chavez, Nora Chavez, Johnny Chavez and his wife Enda Chavez. Blasa had 45 grand kids and numerous great grand kids and great great grand kids.

She was employed with Judge Sidney J. Brown for 19 years until his passing. "Mother" as she was affectionately known by her children was an independent woman who loved to cook, sew and work in her garden, she loved politics, reading the paper to keep up with current events, music, anything to do with the rodeo, watching westerns and enjoyed family get togethers. Blasa was a faithful grandmother who raised numerous grandkids and her children truly felt there was nothing their mother could not do.

Funeral arrangements are being directed by Davis-Greenlawn, the viewing will be on Tuesday from 5pm to 7pm and the funeral will be on Wednesday at 10am.

The family would like to thank the Altus Hospice nurse Jinny Holmes, nurse aid Angela and her social worker Mrs. Bukola who took great care of Blasa, the family would also like to thank everyone who has taken the time to offer their condolences.
