“ Although I did not not Brian on a personal level, I sincerely enjoyed seeing him at Denis'. We always requested him as our server and were shocked and saddened to learn last night that he was no longer with us. He always welcomed us with a smile and had the best attitude. He made us feel like a friend and that he was truly happy to see us. Brian had a great way with little kids and always held a conversation with our little girls. There was definitely something special about him and he will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.

“ Dear Brian, I'm missing you already. I can't tell you that, but you know. I love you like my Son, and I always will. I will always remember how good you were to me, and how close you stuck near, in my darkest, and brightest moments, and never gave up on me, nor judged me...you never changed. You were such a bright light in my life, all I think about is how much I'm going to miss you, your friendship, and unconditional love for me, and my family. I'll see you again one day, until that time, I pray you are at peace, and now watching over me, as I would you. I love you, kiddo, and miss you HERE, yet your time is now to be at peace, and one day we'll meet up in Heaven! I'll find ya!: Good nite for now, rest in Peace. Love, Moma Kimbo, friends in this life & everlasting.
