“ Met Bryan about 10 years ago. My husband’s best friend since he was a child. Bryan was a little reserved but very generous and kind. □ Loved to laugh. Bryan and Jeff were two peas in a pod. Every time they were together it was like they were never apart. Bryan will be greatly missed 🌈

I remember when Bryan was born. I remember Lila Jean and Steve staying with us. Our parents were Bryan’s godparents. We were next door neighbors on Hendon Ln and our moms watched As the World Turns most days together. We were all lucky to grow up in a wonderful neighborhood and ride our bikes to Bayland Park and watch our brothers play baseball. Though we’ve all moved to different towns and states, it’s sweet to have these memories. May grace, love, comfort and strength continue to buoy the Carlson family and friends through these days and we hope Bryan’s continued life’s journey is peace and love filled.
