“ I will always be grateful for the tons of memories I have; from spending my summers with Sheila, Dewayne, and Brandon, to running into Byron, around town, throughout the years. There wasn't one time that he didn't greet me with a smile and a "Hey, Cuz", ask about others, and spoke with such pride about his entire family. I know he, Aunt Dianne, Rhonda, Poppy, Randy, and so many others, are having the most joyous reunion in Heaven. Rest in peace, T-Bone.

“ My heart hurts for Sandy and their family. Byron and Sandy are practically our life long neighbors. Byron has always kept an eye out for us, was very helpful when we needed help, shared his venison sausage or his catfish and has always been so caring for our family. He was like a big brother, always available to lend a hand. He will certainly be missed. Prayers for God to lay his mighty hands on this family for comfort and understanding. RIP 🙏🌹
