Candy Gutierrez was born July 14, 1941, in Primera, TX, the daughter of Luz and Concepcion (Rodriguez) Gonzalez. As the daughter of migrant workers, most of the Candy's youth was spent traveling to different states with her siblings and helping her parents with migrant work. Candy met Joe Gutierrez in Harlingen and they were married June 3, 1963. Candy was a great cook, rarely using recipes, she could create fantastic dishes. She also always gave her time helping family, friends, and community.

Candy was very family oriented, and she devoted much of her time to her family, especially her grandchildren. Candy enjoyed seeing her grandchildren excel in sports, dance, and educational curriculums. You could always hear Candy rooting her grandchildren on, no matter what sport they were playing or where they were dancing.
