He was also a member of Second Baptist Church, Houston, where he met Jere.

Carl enjoyed travelling, spending time with family, watching sports – especially the grandkids' and great grandkids' sports, Texas A&M University athletics and the stock market.

“ May your love and memories of your father live on in your heart. His passing is such a bittersweet sorrow and that this is a difficult time of transition. Both our fathers were laid to rest the same day and same cemetery. My prayers and heartfelt thoughts are with you and your family.

“ A kind and gentle, "tall" man, when we were kids growing up across the street in Sugar Land. Most assuredly why we became Aggies. Going to the Rice/A&M games in the early '60s with Mr. Batten left lasting impressions.
The very picture of the quintessential business man from that era. A man of grace. A quiet man.

“ Carl was the best boss I ever had. What a kind and pleasant person with extreme patience. I learned a lot from him which led me to over 50 years of work experience that I still use today. Prayers to the Batten family. Rest in peace Carl.
