“ Our mom was so giving. I remember when I was in High School a man down on his luck and traveling by railway cars showed up at our house. He politely asked mom if he could cut the grass or if he could do any chores around the house for food. Mother said absolutely NOT but if you are hungry you just sit right there on the porch steps and I'll prepare a plate for you. She quickly went into the kitchen prepared a plate of food and drink and told me to go hand it to him. I was afraid of him as he was quite dirty and unkept. I was reprimanded by her. She said we are ALL the same. We are all One Family. We are all connected and Need to help each other irregardless of our condition or station in life. The man was very grateful. Then for a few years other men traveling on the rails would suddenly appear at our door asking if mom had chores for them. She never did but they would all leave well fed. Mom always taught by example. She was a happy person, great cook, always singing. She enjoyed making people laugh. God blessed her with 93 yrs and we in turn were enriched by her presence. We will miss you mama.
