“ Carolyn is surely happy at her Real Home with Jesus and Ottis. She was the strongest willed little lady I met when we first came to her church, dear WUBC. She loved her church and her Sunday School class, and her family is in my prayers as you surely will miss her. I loved her. She always called me Miss Barbara. May our Lord comfort you with His presence and wonderful memories.

“ My prayers are with you in this time of loss, but there is joy knowing she is in the loving care of our Heavenly Father.

We shared a common date, January 25th, our birth date. She really enjoyed cheese cake, so I would take some to her on that date. She would share with me memories of the good times with her children, grand-children, and great-grand-children from all the pictures on the wall in the den. Will miss her very much. Blessings always.
