“ I worked for Don, for years and he is one of the best men i have ever known. He helped me stay grounded . I miss him. What a man. I miss the stories. When he moved my family to OKC, he took me around to all the places he knew. I remember one called. " here i iz club" on NE 23rd in OKC. It was gone when we were there in 1991. but his stories, Oh, those stories. One thing about Don was , here in OKC we called him " Big Daddy". I learned a lot from him. RIP, Big Daddy.

“ Don was one of the best men that I've known. He changed the course of my life the first day I met him (interview with Schlumberger in Midland, TX) and on several later occasions. In my early working years he provided valuable guidance and support that I will always remember and cherish. I last saw Don in Nov-2013 when we shared a very enjoyable 2 hour lunch in Houston -- he was 81 then, but very much the same man I first met back in mid-1979... dry sense of humor, slow drawl, great memory and very down to earth. I'm so sorry that I've not seen him since, but his memory, mentoring and basic values will live with me for years to come. RIP in Don you are definitely missed!

“ Don was one of the mentors of my life. Met him in Midland-Odessa as my boss but more than anything he taught me about life. About how to treat people. About how to take care of myself. He is greatly missed by many.
