“ Dearest Allen, Misty, Dusty, Sunny, Autumn, Trey, Nevada, Jaydin and Ric,
My deepest sympathy for the loss of your beloved wife, precious mama, grandmother and dearest sister. I know this is a difficult time for you all and my heart goes out to you all.

Casey was a strong woman. She was kind, loving and a woman of faith. She lived out her faith by how she lived her life. On one of the visits I had with her, she shared with me that at the age of 19, she walked into a church and gave her life to Christ. She said, “I’m not one to talk much about my faith” but what she didn’t realize was, her faith was seen by how she lived her life. Her faith shined through by the way she loved her husband, her daughters, her grandkids and friends. Her faith shined through by how she cared for others. And her faith shined through by her determination to do whatever she had to do to fight her cancer and she fought a good fight. But the Lord said, “that’s enough, Casey, come home my child, I need you here with me.” So my dear Allen, Misty, Dusty, Sunny, Autumn, Trey, Nevada, Jaydin and Ric, your precious wife, mother, grandmother, sister is no longer fighting but rejoicing in heaven with her Savior, with a healthy body and no more pain. Praise be to God. May this bring some comfort to you all. And may her legacy of faith be passed down to each one of you. In Jesus name I pray, amen! Psalm 116:15 says: Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His godly ones.

May God’s peace be with you all and may He sustain you through the coming days and months. And may He surround you with His love and comfort. In Jesus name I pray, amen!

You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely with deepest sympathy and love,
Brenda Sharp Castro (Franko Sharp’s daughter)
