“ I miss walking into the house seeing you sitting on the chair. I miss you giving each of your grandchildren a dollar to buy something from la cucaracha. I miss going into your purse for chicle. I miss your blessings you'd give us EVERY time we'd leave the house. I miss my mom saying “kissy momo” EVERY time we'd leave the house. I can go on about how much I miss you and the memories you brought to us all. The unconditional love you gave us meant everything to me. With my birthday coming up it always makes me miss you more than usual. Ever since your passing every time we sing las mananitas I clearly hear your voice in the background. You will always be the best grandma in the world. I miss you momo, mi paloma blanca. Te quiero siempre.
