“ Cece and Regina ,my mother,had special bond that could not be lessened by time or distance. Our annual trips to the farm and Rosenberg created memories that have lasted a lifetime. Cece's annual trip to visit mom here in Virginia at Xmas or fishing in the fall with Kie were always highlights of their and our years. James Collins

“ I have very fond memories of Aunt Cece! I have the honor of her name as my middle name. We loved all her visits to Virginia and our yearly trips during the summer, What a wonderful life of 102 years. I am just sorry it has been too long since we have all visited. Much love Aunt Cece! Forever in my heart. 💕
