

Cecilia "Delia" Magana

September 19, 1936 - January 3, 2013

Cecilia "Delia" Magana

Cecilia "Delia" Magana, who was the heartbeat of her family and best friend to her husband, lifted into Heaven after a long illness that she fought with unbelievable strength.

Delia was a wife, mother, grandma, sister, aunt and cousin. She is survived by the love of her life, Sam Magana, who will have been celebrating their 53rd Wedding Anniversary later this month. Delia and Sam shared a unique bond that was rare and what most of us strive to achieve. Her cowboy was her everything and she was everything and more to him.

Delia and Sam had 8 children. Her legacy lives on in all her sons and daughters; Sammy Magana, Roland Magana and his wife Susan, Wallace Magana, Melinda Frey and her husband Britt, Ricky Magana, Sandra Davis and her husband Jeff, Sharon Rembert and her husband Mitch, and her baby Barbara Magana Robertson and her husband Bill.

Through every win in the arena, stitch at the hospital, or whatever accolade or misstep, Delia was there to give a hug if needed, word of encouragement if warranted or a dose of honesty if necessary. She was known for cooking breakfast, lunch and dinner. She was a connoisseur of the enchilada and the master of the rib eye steak but her salsa is what made her the queen of her Kitchen. Every meal at her house was a feast for the family prepared solely by her.

Her grandest love was bestowed upon her grandchildren; Lindsey, Ryan, Chelsea, Blake, Mitch, Josh, Brandon, Troy, Alexis, Brooke, Christian and Brittany. In her kitchen reads a sign, "who needs Santa, when you have Grandma" and that is how it was to be her grandkid.

She has been a member of Saint Theresa's Catholic Church for over 50 years. She believed in her God and had extraordinary faith. She had immense devotion to her religion and said prayers for many over the years. From taking the offerings to the church bazaar, Delia was proud to be part of the St Theresa Family.

Delia loved to dance with husband, shop and have lunch with her daughters, cook for her sons and spoil her grandkids. She was the ultimate wife, mommy and grandma.

The Magana Family would like to thank the Methodist hospital ICU & CCU staffs for the care and dignity they provided and ensured to their mother.

Serving as Pall Bearers will be her sons and her grandsons.

Funeral arrangements are set as follows on Monday, January 7, 2013 at St Theresa Catholic Church 705 St. Theresa Blvd. Sugar Land, Texas 77498; family will receive friends and family starting at 6pm in the main sanctuary. A Rosary will commence at 7:30pm. On Tuesday January 8, 2013 at 1pm Rev.

Stephen B. Reynolds, Pastor will preside and lead a funeral mass at St Theresa Catholic Church with Interment to follow at Davis Green Lawn in Rosenberg. Following burial at 3pm The Magana family invites everyone to a reception to celebrate the life of Delia Magana at the parish hall at St Theresa Catholic Church.

“ Your mother and father always brought me goodies when they came to have their blood drawn there at the methodist hospital. She brought me a purse for Christmas one year and he always bought vegetables and sausage. Such wonderful people. She is just another full blossomed rose that was ready to be picked for Gods Garden.

“ What a wonderful family the Magana's are and always have been and Delia was most definitely the Queen of that family! She will be greatly missed but take comfort in knowing that she knew how very much she was loved. She leaves behind a legacy that many of us can only hope to achieve. The Hitchcock family is holding your family in our thoughts and prayers.
