“ I am very saddened to hear of Cecelia"s passing. I had the privilege of knowing Cecelia and Ray when our family lived in Richmond. In my heart I recall Cecelia as a friend, always down to earth and genuine. She always greeted us with that big smile of hers! A smile that beamed with gentleness, kindness, and friendship. Thank you for sharing with us your lovely video tribute to Cecelia. It brought back many warm memories. Typical of Cecelia, the pictures showed her always surrounded by family, friends, and children. I found that comforting.

I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to everyone who loved Cecelia...Ray, Thomas, Cindy, their families, Gerald, Sharon, as well as, all extended families and friends. May she rest in God's Eternal Peace.

“ Cecelia meant so much to my family. She helped take care of my children, Rob & Kelly, and then one of my grandsons, Colin. We always knew that they were in good hands with “CC”. Cecelia was a giver, she always gave to others. May she Rest In Peace.
